Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Rose Ntube Ngole has worked as a broadcast clerk and journalist at the Cameroon Radio and Television Corporation (CRTV) from 1992-2005. She was host of Under the Roof, a talk show program that focused on social, health, and educational issues such as literacy, barriers to girl-child education, girl-child neglect, under-age marriage, child labor, female genital mutilation and other harmful traditional practices affecting the reproductive health of women and girls in Cameroon. Ntube Ngole is a motivational speaker and educator working for the District of Columbia Public Schools. She has an intense passion to serve children with special needs through teaching and advocacy. She is a born-again Christian whose faith has been tested through fiery trials, personal setbacks and tragedies. Ntube Ngole uses her life s experiences to encourage Christians to be resilient in the face of adversity. She undoubtedly believes that God is still in the business of performing miracles. She is a living testimony to that truth. She holds B.A degrees in English and Journalism from the University of Yaounde, and a M. Ed degree in Educational Leadership from Howard University in Washington DC. Rose Ntube Ngole is currently pursuing a doctorate degree in Educational Administration and Policy and a graduate non-degree program in special education at Howard University School of Education. She resides in Washington DC with her children.
