J8588 2010l OCLC Number: (OCoLC)699510732 Subject: Criminals -- Rehabilitation -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 Second Chance came at a critical time in Michigans work. For the first time, there was Federal legislation and a clear message from Congress that improving reentry policy and practice is vital to public safety. This message fueled public and legislative support for Michigans reentry initiative, which enhanced public safety by reducing recidivism and ultimately allowed the State to reduce its prison population by 12 percent, saving an estimated 900 million. The establishment of a National Reentry Resource Center was an important step to advance the reentry field. Congress and the Bureau of Justice Assistance are strengthening government, community, and faith-based organizations receiving Federal funds to ensure the most effective use of those invest-ments. Following a highly competitive process, the Bureau of Justice As-sistance awarded the contract for the National Reentry Resource Center to the Council of State Governments Justice Center. We have learned a great deal from our work with Second Chance grantees,...
