Brand New Book  Print on Demand .WHAT S ON THE MENU Steps to Healing and Breakthrough Life, in general, is challenging. From the day we re born until the day we lay our mortal bodies to rest, our existence of learning, adapting, and overcoming is never-ending. It is akin to a rollercoaster ride that takes us to the peak of excitement, the thrill of achieved success and happiness, only to be rushed into the depths of doubt, uncertainty, and perceived failure. Learning to tame our lives and smooth out the bumps is at the heart of What s On The Menu. If you ve wondered why negative events just seem to happen to you or why roadblocks impede your progress, this book is written to help manage those obstacles. Solutions are available to combat the ills that may keep you down or prevent you from achieving your fondest heart s desire, but one must look and one must exercise hope and faith. Overcoming adversity does not come without the sacrifice of time, energy, and a will to actively take part in pushing towards success. Carl Mathis is a skilled counselor and life-coach and he s written this timely guide to assist anyone with life s array of troublesome burdens. There is no earthly trial that cannot be overcome if one s desire is great, and the principles of The Menu are followed and applied. Weight loss, depression, anger, and so much more can be resolved and set aside when body, mind, and soul work together to put off the fiery darts of the adversary. Mind and spirit working in unison are a powerful team to achieve true...
