Excerpt: . . . 11 ing in for a short period of time and you are planning to send them back to their home country. There are a lot of dual taxation issues, relocation expenses, and other things that I include in my testi-mony. I believe that American cannot maintain its global advantage without an adequate supply of top-quality engineers. Immigrants build wealth and create jobs for native-born Americans, and I agree with Stephen that they keep manufacturing in the United States. In the near term, we simply must have access to foreign nation-als. Many of them have been educated in the United States. By sending them home, we are, at best, sending them to our own for-eign plants, and at worst we are sending them to our competitors. I have seen other countries relaxing their immigration laws to try to get access to this top talent. It is...
