Reviews

This publication will never be effortless to get started on reading through but very entertaining to read through. It normally is not going to expense too much. I discovered this publication from my dad and i encouraged this book to find out.

From Madera to DEGREESCatherines. I HAVE already mentioned, that on the 3d of November we weighed from Madera, after orders had been given to the Captains to rendezvous at St. Jago, one of the Cape de Verd Islands, in cafe the squadron was separated. But the next day* when we were got to sea, the Commodore considering that the season was far advanced, and that touching at St. Jago would create a new delay, he for this reason thought proper to alter his rendezvous, and to appoint the Island of St. Catherine s, on the coast of Brazil, to be the first place to which the {hips of the squadron Vere to repair in case of separation. In our passage to the Island of St. Catherine s, we found the direction of the trade-winds to differ considerably from what we had reason to expect, both from the general histories given of these winds, and the experience of former Navigators- For the learned Dr. Halley, in his account of the trade winds, which take place in the Ethiopic and Atlantic Ocean, tells us, that from the latitude of 28 N, to the latitude of io N, there is generally afresh gale of N. E. wind, which towards the African side rarely comes to the eastward of E.N. E, or passes to the northward of N. N. E: But on the American side, the wind is somewhat more easterly, though most commonly even...
