Table giving foreign, oriental, and insular stations, and transactions for fiscal year ended June 30, 1911. LECTURE ON QUARANTINE LAWS AND REGULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF CONSULAR OFFICERS. In accordance with what has now become customary on the part of the Consular Bureau, State Department, a request was made for an officer of the service to appear on October 9 before the class of consuls for the purpose of explaining the quarantine laws and regulations as they apply to foreign ports. The Consular Bureau, through the agency of its representatives stationed in the various foreign ports, is constantly making itself more valuable as an aid in the prevention of the introduction of the quarantinable diseases from foreign ports into this country. Their duties consist in the issuing of original or supplemental bills of health to vessels departing from...
