Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Minute Boys of Boston Archie Hemming is as straight-heated a boy as was ever raised in Boston town, and he insists that, while we are seemingly idling our time away here in the Cambridge camp, I ought to set down what small share we lads of Boston have had in beating the lobster backs, for certain it is we have done our share, and no less a man than General Israel Putnam has told us plainly that we have already been of great aid to the Cause. After such praise as that it would not be strange if we allowed ourselves to be puffed up with pride, more especially because we can recall many a time since a baker s dozen of us took the high sounding name of Minute Boys of Boston, when we have come off best in a tussle with the king s soldiers or the rascally Tories.
