Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Syllabus of Domestic Science and Domestic Art for the High Schools of Illinois, Vol. 15 For the information of those interested the following notes concerning the development of this Syllabus are hereby given. In 1907, believing that the time had come for more determined efforts to introduce domestic science and domestic art into the public schools of Illinois, the Department of Household Science of the University of Illinois invited a few interested persons to consider such plans with them at the time of the High School Conference, November, 1907. As a result of that meeting the following persons were chosen to serve as a committee: Miss Isabel Bevier, Chairman; Mrs. Mary Pierce Van Zile, Miss Carrie Galt, Miss Helena M. Pincomb, Mr. J. H. Browning, and Mr. T. C. Clendenen. This committee undertook the preparation of a syllabus for the unifying of the work in domestic science and domestic art in the high schools of the state. Owing to the unorganized condition of the work, the committee found it necessary to make a syllabus flexible...
