Ruby Lee and the Very Big Deal (Paperback)

By Nancy Buffington

Tru Publishing, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Stephanie Mullani (illustrator). 201 x 126 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Ruby Lee has a problem. A very BIG problem. She has won a so-called prize in her school: to read her essay in front of her entire smallish town. Except that Ruby has a bad case of stage fright. Help comes in the guise of her eccentric Great Aunt Alice, who may-or may not-have been a starlet in the golden age of film. Great Aunt Alice floats between two worlds: day-to-day reality, and a world of memory (or fantasy) in which she hobnobbed with the likes of Marlon Brando, Humphrey Bogart, John Barrymore and Vivien Leigh. Her colorful stories-of helping Barrymore prepare for a role, teaching Bogart to whistle, pulling Brando out of bed to audition for The Godfather-will entertain and delight readers of all ages. What s more, each of Alice s tales contains one of her nine secrets to becoming a star. These secrets, which unfold as Ruby prepares for her speech, ensure that she shines when the big day comes, her fear of public speaking now just a memory. The two...
